

Today's Paper » NATIONAL

Published: December 8, 2012 00:00 IST | Updated: December 8, 2012 05:10 IST

TANA festival in Hyderabad on Dec. 21

Staff Reporter

The Telugu Association of North of America will organise a literary festival at Jubilee Hall in Hyderabad on December 21, 'Janapada Kalotsavam' at Khammam on December 22, various service activities at Repalle (in Guntur district) on December 23 and 24 and unveiling of the statue of Vempati Chinna Satyam at Kuchipudi on January 4 as part of the 'TANA Chaitanya Sravanthi' programme being held in Andhra Pradesh ahead of the 19th TANA convention scheduled for May 2013. In addition to these programmes, TANA is having a large representation in the World Telugu Conference to be held at Tirupati later this month, said TANA president Prasad Thotakura.

Addressing the media here on Friday, Mr. Prasad said priority was given to finding ways to protect Telugu language which is coming under the onslaught of foreign cultures.

TANA Director (Southwest) Manjulatha Kanneganti, TANA convention coordinator Murali Venna and Medical & Cultural Association (Repalle) secretary V. Prakasa Rao were present.

Ads by Google

HDFC Life™ Term Plan

Premium Starts@Just ₹ 2000/yr. 30 Years Life Cover* Buy Online Now

www.buyhdfcslonline.com